

Good practices in moderation of assessment in transnational education

- • •
- Have structured interaction i.e. have an agreed time, medium and frequency for communication
- Have good and frequent communication using a number of forms
- Use technology to support communication e.g. Skype

- • •
- Build good rapport and supportive relationships over time based on trust
- Meet in person before teaching starts
- Co-develop assessment items

