

Pronouns: activities

Add the missing pronouns to the text below:

Jerry was the kind of guy _____ love to hate. _____ was always in a good mood and always had something positive to say. When someone would ask _____ how he was doing, he would reply, "If _____ were any better, I would be twins!"

He was a unique manager because he had several waiters who had followed him around from restaurant to restaurant. The reason the waiters followed Jerry was because of _____ attitude. He was a natural motivator. If an employee was having a bad day, Jerry was there telling the employee how to look on the positive side of the situation.

Seeing this style really made _____ curious, so one day I went up to Jerry and asked him, "I don't get it! You can't be a positive person all of the time. How do _____ do it?" Jerry replied, "Each morning I wake up and say to _____, 'Jerry, you have two choices today. You can choose to be in a good mood or you can choose to be in a bad mood.' I choose to be in a good mood. Each time _____ bad happens, I can choose to be a victim or I can choose to learn from _____. I choose to learn from _____. Every time _____ comes to me complaining, I can choose to accept their complaining or I can point out the positive side of life. I choose the positive side of life."

Circle the correct pronouns below:

- The tutor frowned at I/me for talking in class.
- The campus is quite near to the city. It/he is about ten minutes away.
- This is the book that/this my lecturer wrote.
- She is the student who/which lodged the report.
- We studied Australian History, who/which is my favourite subject.
- This is the tutor that/whom I emailed several times.
- This/these are my students, Molly and Timothy.
- This is our office and that/these is your seminar room over there.
- Who are those/this students standing by the cafe?
- I am teaching yourself/myself to write in an academic manner.
- Would you like to help ourselves/yourself to the books on the counter?
- He busied himself/itself in the library.
- I went for a talk but there was no one/anyone in the auditorium.
- Everybody/something enjoys his teaching.
- If the tutor cannot come, we will ask anyone/someone else.

Answers

Jerry was the kind of guy you love to hate. He was always in a good mood and always had something positive to say. When someone would ask him how he was doing, he would reply, "If I were any better, I would be twins!"

He was a unique manager because he had several waiters who had followed him around from restaurant to restaurant. The reason the waiters followed Jerry was because of his attitude. He was a natural motivator. If an employee was having a bad day, Jerry was there telling the employee how to look on the positive side of the situation.

Seeing this style really made me curious, so one day I went up to Jerry and asked him, "I don't get it! You can't be a positive person all of the time. How do you do it?" Jerry replied, "Each morning I wake up and say to myself, 'Jerry, you have two choices today. You can choose to be in a good mood or you can choose to be in a bad mood.' I choose to be in a good mood. Each time something bad happens, I can choose to be a victim or I can choose to learn from it. I choose to learn from it. Every time someone comes to me complaining, I can choose to accept their complaining or I can point out the positive side of life. I choose the positive side of life."

- The tutor frowned at me for talking in class.
- The campus is quite near to the city. It is about ten minutes away.
- This is the book that my lecturer wrote.
- She is the student who lodged the report.
- We studied Australian History which is my favourite subject.
- This is the tutor whom I emailed several times.
- These are my students, Molly and Timothy.
- This is our office and that is your seminar room over there.
- Who are those students standing by the cafe?
- I am teaching myself to write in an academic manner.
- Would you like to help yourself to the books on the counter?
- He busied himself in the library.
- I went for a talk but there was no one in the auditorium.
- Everybody enjoys his teaching.
- If the tutor cannot come, we will ask someone else.