

SHORT TERM OVERSEAS STUDY

Immerse yourself in a different culture, expand your horizons, and gain a global perspective. Studying overseas will challenge you to better yourself, set you apart from other graduates!

Take the opportunity to combine travel and study. With Program Director approval, you could substitute a course or part of a course for a range of upcoming Short Term Study Overseas opportunities. See below for a section of the many programs currently available. Please note, the deadline for most of these opportunities is September 30, 2023, however, similar opportunities will be available for 2024, so most suitable for students taking Honours on a part-time basis.

KGU Winter School in Japan (with Kwansei Gakuin University)

This three-week program is designed for students who want to learn about Japan, including contemporary Japanese culture, animation, games and traditional Japanese cuisine. Students will also have the chance to participate in various types of Japanese cultural activities, such as Yuzen dyeing and making Japanese traditional sweets. Participation in this program does not require any Japanese language skills, so this is a great opportunity to explore "Cool Japan" and add a global experience to your studies.

International Winter School in South Korea (with Hanyang University)

Numerous courses on offer, including: Korean History and Culture; Digital Studio; K-Pop, Ceramic Practice, and; Engineering and Society.

Journalism Placements in Mongolia, Vietnam, Argentina and more (with Projects Abroad)

Overseas placements in print, radio, and TV outlets in a variety of countries. Go behind the scenes and discover the stories of another country while contributing content to a professional outlet. These placements are an excellent way to develop your skills, discover how the media is regulated in other places, and gain an enviable point of difference in your portfolio.

July in Florence, Italy (with CIS Australia)

Study abroad in Florence, Italy, for 3 or 6 weeks. Full of art, architecture, history, culture, and of course cuisine, Florence is a top destination. Choose from a variety of Creative courses offered in English, including Architecture, Culinary Arts, Hospitality, Fashion Design, Magazine Publishing, Photography, Studio Art, and more! Enjoy frequent social and cultural activities in Florence, plus nearby excursions to make the most of your weekends.

Design & Creative Industries Internships in Indonesia (with International Internships)

Design & Creative Industries Internships include roles across Digital Marketing, Media & PR, Graphic Design and Architecture. You will support NGOs, non-profit organisations, or businesses with consulting, content production, graphic design, developing design ideas, marketing strategies, and more. Work with global PR companies such as Edelman, or other leading media firms such as Roots & Co, the Indonesian Planned Parenthood Association Yogyakarta's Chapter, and the Red Nose Foundation.

Community Development \(Build\) Placement in Fiji (with Think Pacific)

Join Think Pacific's building project to make a substantial difference to rural Fijian villages, leave behind a physical legacy and learn about Fijian construction. You will work as a team to build a community health centre contributing to community development initiatives that support the achievement of the Fiji National Development Plan and UN Sustainable Development Goals.
